

The King's Gallery, Edinburgh

Photo journey

If you have any questions or require any assistance during your visit, please do not hesitate to ask a member of our friendly Warden Team who would be delighted to help.

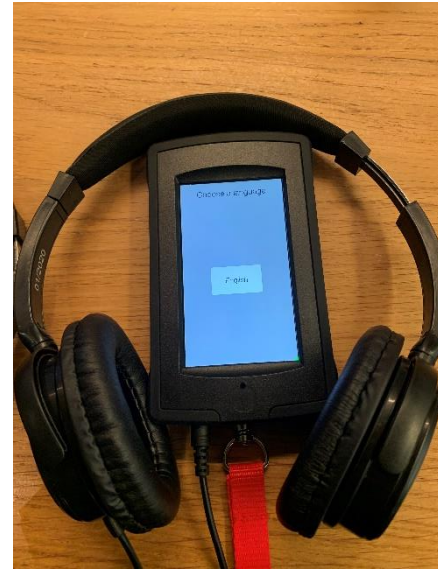

Entrance foyer and ticket desk

Tickets for the exhibition can be purchased in advance online, or at our Ticket Desk on the day.

Please note, for security purposes, bag checks are in place prior to entering the exhibition. Our Warden Team, dressed in tartan uniforms, are positioned throughout the exhibition to answer questions and to assist visitors.

Multimedia guide pick-up point and Cloak Room

A multimedia guide for the exhibition is available in English language only.

Large print labels and Plain English text are also available.

This is also the cloakroom check-in where you may store coats and bags free of charge. Please note, backpacks may not be worn inside the exhibition.

Stair entrance to exhibition

Lift access to the exhibition

View of the beginning of exhibition

If using the lift to enter the exhibition, please turn right as you exit the lift to start viewing the exhibition from the beginning.

Please feel free to borrow one of our black fold out stools, located next to the lift, for your comfort during your time in the exhibition.

Centre of the exhibition

Rear room of exhibition

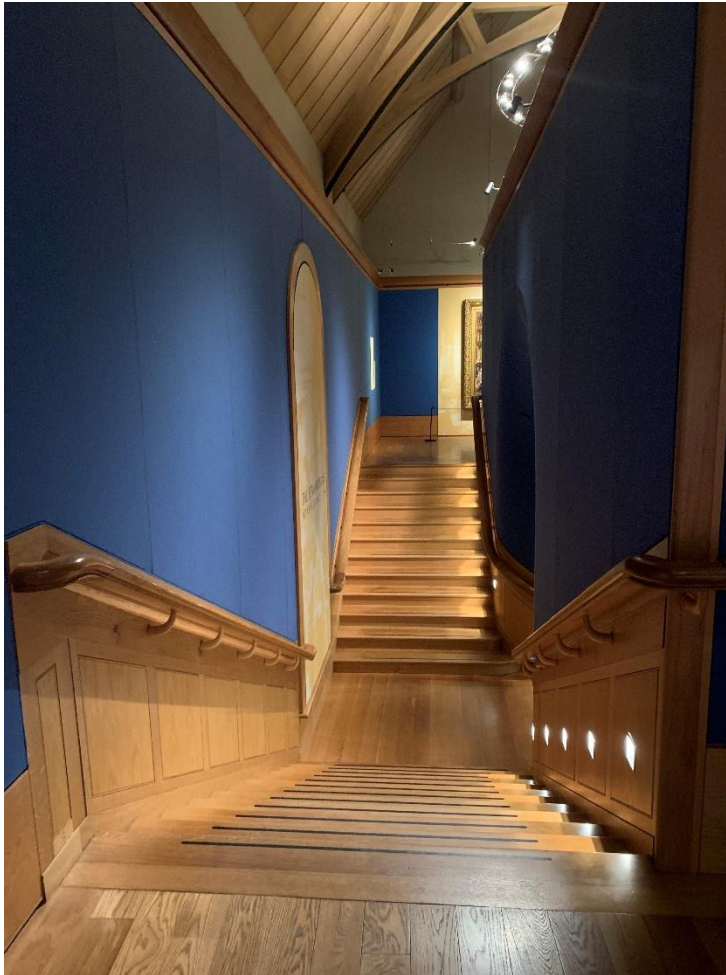

There are a couple of wooden benches available in this section of the exhibition.

View of final section of exhibition

Stairs and lift to exit the exhibition

Entrance to the Palace Shop

The Palace Shop is located to the right of the ticket desk. It is on one level with wooden flooring.

Please do not hesitate to ask a member of staff if you require any assistance during your visit.

Café at the Palace

The Café at the Palace offers a range of soup, sandwiches, hot meals, home-made cakes and refreshments. A takeaway service is available.

Café toilet entrance and toilet facilities

Hand dryers are positioned underneath the mirrors of the toilets.

These can be noisy and so paper towels are also available as an alternative option as well.

Café accessible toilet facility

We hope that you enjoy your visit to the
The King's Gallery, Edinburgh.

For further information: www.rct.uk